

2024 CBWOQ Nominations Report

These nominees are presented to the CBWOQ membership to serve as Directors on the CBWOQ Board for the following terms:

2024-2025

Heather Rumble Peterson, Western Association

No stranger to CBWOQ, Heather comes to her role with decades of experience giving leadership at the Board level to the Canadian Baptist family, from CBM to CBOQ to her home church, First Baptist Church, Kingsville. A practicing lawyer, Heather brings to CBWOQ a love for Baptist women and a focused wisdom in leading ministries through seasons of transition.

Noreen McMaster, Trent Valley Association

Noreen is married with two children. She chairs the deacons board at Omemee Baptist Church, and is CBWOQ's women's ministry link for Trent-Valley Association.

Hilary Vanderwater, Niagara-Hamilton Association

Hilary is a mother, teacher and a cook for the Out of the Cold program. She is especially interested in spiritual formation. She lives in St. Catharines.

Sonia Pehlivanian, Quebec Association

Sonia is a retired HR manager and a grandmother of four. She enjoys volunteering at the local food bank, reading, walking, sewing, knitting and baking. She attends Temple Baptist Church in Montreal and is a board member with the Quebec Association of Baptist Women.

Sandra Mok, Toronto Association

A member of Mississauga Chinese Baptist Church, Sandra holds an undergraduate degree in Accounting and Finance from McGill University and has worked for the Ontario Public Service since 2005. She lives in Mississauga with her husband and two teenage children.

Gloria Stafford, Toronto Association

Gloria is the Associate Pastor and Director of Life Transitions Counselling at Thornhill Baptist Church. She enjoys working with new Canadians, youth and leading the Alpha program at church. She also enjoys music, walking, reading, sewing and needle arts.

Jennifer Yousif, Trent Valley Association

Jennifer is a philosophy and Christian Apologetics student with a continued undergrad degree from Tyndale University. She has helped her parents, both pastors, in evangelism, church planting, women's and children's ministries in Pakistan, and since 2011, in Canada. With her mother, she co-founded Women Arise For Destiny, a non-profit organization whose goal is to plant House of Prayer churches globally and to empower women around the globe through prayer and biblical teaching. The ministry now reaches 300+ women weekly in six countries

Jackeline Reidstra, Toronto Association

Jackeline is from Brazil and arrived in Toronto in 2018. With a bachelor of Business Administration degree, and a strong passion and interest for social services and nonprofit work, she works full-time for a nonprofit organization in Toronto and serves remotely as marketing and communications coordinator for AFASE, a Christian non-governmental organization in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. She is a member of Yorkminster Park Baptist Church.

Jane Masenda, Niagara-Hamilton Association

Originally from Zimbabwe, Jane is a mother to three adult children and grandmother to three. She is an active community volunteer in St. Catharines, where she lives and worships at Queen Street Baptist Church.
